

10/02 MHS Announcements

If you are a homecoming court nominee, please remember to attend the required meeting in Mrs. Dowd's room in 826 immediately following announcements.

The volleyball team has challenged Red Oak to collect food for our favorite food pantry. If Midlothian fans bring the most peanut butter vs. Red Oak's jelly, we get to donate all of it to Manna House. Bring jars of peanut butter to any volleyball coach, front office, or south office by Friday or to the game on Friday. Come out and watch us smear Red Oak on Friday before heading to the football game!

The BSU will have a meeting tomorrow in Ms. Weaver's room during advisory. We hope to see you all there!

Oklahoma State University, Hardin-Simmons University, and Stephen F. Austin University will be here today during all lunches. Stop by their table to find out more about what they have to offer.

If you are in the culinary arts club there is a link in your email to vote for the culinary art club tshirts. Please vote by Friday.

The Foreign Language Club will be meeting tomorrow after school in Señora Hall's classroom. This meeting is mandatory as we will be discussing homecoming, shirts, and other important topics.

Artists - MHS will have a dedicated mural painting team starting this semester. If you have artistic skills and want to make your mark here at MHS and around town, you are invited to try out for the MHS Mural Team tomorrow in Mr. Franks class, room 428, during advisory. Art 2 and AP Art students are encouraged to participate, but anyone can try out whether you are an art student or not. Be sure to bring a portfolio of your past work.

This Friday let's WHITE OUT the stands at Aledo for our varsity football game. White Out shirts will be available during lunches this week through Thursday. Shirts are $12 each.

Seniors and Parents: Join us for FAFSA Night, this Thursday at 5:30 pm in the MHS PD Room - 158. We will help walk you through the FAFSA application to get help paying for college! Be sure to bring your school issued laptop & 2018 Federal Tax Return.

This Friday is PJ Day! Show your Panther pride and let's "Put the Aledo Bearcats to Sleep."

The Homecoming Dance will be Saturday, Oct. 12th from 7 to 11 pm. Outside date forms are available in the front office or room 815. Completed forms must be turned in by Oct. 9th to Mrs. Canonico.

Juniors, your class shirts are back on sale for ONE MORE WEEK! Make sure to visit the Rally Sportswear website to order! If you haven't already purchased a shirt this is your LAST CHANCE, so make sure you get one!

Jostens' will be here this week on Thursday October 3rd for Junior Girls to order class ring during all lunches, Friday October 4th for boys during all lunches. They will also be back on October 10th during all lunches if you missed Thursday or Friday. There are extra packets in the Counseling Office if you need one.

HOSA and FCCLA are hosting a canned food drive through North Texas Food Bank and Manna House from September 30th to November 8th. If you would like to donate please bring any canned food items to one of the following locations: Ms. Lynch in room 719, Mrs. Castleberry in room 721, Mrs. Almand in 723 and Mrs. Walker in room 712.

Students who have not picked up your class shirts will need to visit your Class Sponsor Before or After School or get a pass to go during advisory to pick up your shirt. The class sponsors are:

Juniors: Salazar and Ferranti in the Science Hall

Sophomores: Walker and Almand in the 700 Hall

Freshmen: Webster in the English Hall

Tuesday night MHS Panther Volleyball defeated Corsicana in 3 straight sets with the scores, 25-15, 25-15, 25-20

Remember, PASS tutoring is available every Tuesday-Thursday, from 4:05-5:05 in room 117. This is a FREE tutoring service available to anyone who needs it!

Your announcements today are brought to you by Panther News.
