The SHAC Meeting Minutes
10/14/21

1. Welcome and Introductions
 - Dr. Hemmle called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. Introductions were made and participants were informed that the meeting was being recorded.
2. 2021-2022 SHAC Meeting Procedures
 - Dr. Hemmle reviewed SHAC meeting procedures
3. Aramark Nutritional Update
 - Mandie Tucker provided an update related to food service to our MISD students. Due to USDA federal dollars allocated to the district, we are able to feed all of our students for free for the entire school year. There are supply issues and Aramark is doing its best to accommodate for those shortages.
 - Free and reduced lunch applications are still needed. If families apply this year, it will carry over to the next school year. It is also important to apply this year in order to receive waivers and benefits in other areas, including academic testing registration, discounted college application rates, etc.
4. SHAC Parent Co-Chair results were shared based on the results of the vote.
Nominations are:
 - Rachel Hallmark
 - Brenda Czerwieski
5. Reviewed Parent Notification of Programs
6. Review of Human Sexuality Curriculum for 21-22
 - AIM for Success human sexuality for the 21-22 school year was reviewed. This curriculum was selected and approved by the 20-21 SHAC.
 - Growing Up: Puberty curriculum for 5th grade human sexuality instruction was reviewed.

7. Future meeting dates were shared
